Office of the Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs

Lamar University is an equal opportunity educational institution and employer. Students, faculty, and staff members are selected without regard to their race, color, creed, sex, age, disability or national origin, consistent with the Assurance of Compliance with Title IV of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; Executive Order 11246 as issued and amended; Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended; the Americans with Disabilities Act; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The provisions of this handbook do not constitute a contract, expressed or implied, between any applicant, student, faculty member, or staff employee and Lamar University or The Texas State University System. The provisions of this handbook are subject to change, without prior notice, to keep policies in compliance with State and Federal laws, the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Regents, The Texas State University System, and the educational objectives of Lamar University. Inquiries concerning application of these regulations may be referred to the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. The Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs is responsible for this handbook and the academic policies contained within it.
